What do our clients have to say about us?

'It stopped us to think the way which is comfortable and go into another place which is for the betterment of the group'

Andrew Harding, Executive Director, Head of Legal Risk Management, Macquarie Bank

'Anders presented to our entire agency and was thoroughly entertaining, whilst providing good insights into managing change in business ... provide your organisation with the creative edge you need for the future!'

Victoria Curro - Managing Director, McCann Worldgroup

'He was so engaging and insightful ... I could have listened to him for the whole day and would not have looked at my watch once!'

Katie van den Broek, Team Leader, Cadden Crowe Recruitment

'Anders is an extremely professional bloke. The training project we engaged him for was enlightening and equipped the players with a new way of going forward'

Brad Fittler, Sydney Roosters Coach

'His topic was very well presented, with a mix of media and interaction that maintained and captured the whole audience. He is very knowledgeable, inspires thought and creates motivation to change our thinking. He is without doubt one of the most engaging speakers out there!'

Sally-Anne Blanshard, Research Manager, Ambition Recruitment

'He touched on relevant information that clients could relate to in their business and gave them an insight into different ways to look at their business and their thinking. Anders was also available to speak to clients during and after his presentation on a one on one which they enjoyed and felt at ease with his knowledge and asking him questions ... He is a talented speaker with great foresight and vision into the future'

Lisa Willson, Wella, RED Event Manager

'I now believe I can achieve anything, even the things I used to think were out of reach'

Kristina Karlsson, Founder of Kikki K, Telstra Young Business Woman of the Year 2007

'Anders is the GURU of Funk. Sharp, funny, focussed and funky. Book him.'

Matt Church CSP, CEO of Thought Leaders

Who is Anders?

A reformed Australian-trained lawyer, Anders is a Swedish change agent operating on the fresh frontiers of business. He is an expert in Funky Thinking and its application as a problem-solving methodology in 21st Century business.

Anders is a maverick thought leader on how organisations and individuals can funky up their thinking, synthesize thinking diversity, and future-proof their business brains in a world that is just a little out of whack. In downgraded times, it is essential that you upgrade your thinking to maximise your Return On Thinking in 2009.
